Tax Assessor McKinney Again Asks Commission For Financial Help

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, March 24, at the courthouse in Elba, and again heard Tax Assessor Mack McKinney plead his case in an attempt to get reimbursed for $27,834.34 he reportedly spent out of his personal account because of the now-completed tax reappraisal program.

At the March 10 meeting with the Commission, McKinney was instructed to provide detailed proof of the expenses he claimed to have incurred due to the reappraisal program; and at Monday's meeting, McKinney brought along his accountant and a detailed financial statement.

"I requested a legal opinion from the Attorney General on the matter," stated County Attorney Branton Rowe, "and he stated that assuming all the expenses were caused by the property tax reappraisal, the county could reimburse the tax assessor up to $40,000."

"I have taken Mr. McKinney's bank accounts," reported Mr. Johnny Bowden, a certified public accountant, "and have compiled a financial record. From April 10, 1978 to September 30, 1979, Mr. McKinney took in $64,333.50 in commission from fees, and had $65,376.70 in expenses. That is a net loss of $1,043.20. When you add to that $10,572.13 in personal withdrawals, it comes to an equity of $11,615.33."

"Back in 1974-75," said McKinney, "Mr. Donaldson (the former assessor) had two employees in Enterprise and Elba, and during tag season he added one person at each site and paid them minimum wage of $1.50 an hour. When I came in, minimum wage was $2.90 and I had to employ 4 people at Enterprise and 3 at Elba. I now employ a total of 11 (including 2 on county payroll), and I'll have to add two more additional workers during tag season. This job has been a chore and a challenge! I'm not asking for $40,000. all I want is $27,834.34, a fair amount."

"I've said all along I don't think it's right for a public official to have to pull money out of his own pocket to run his office," stated Commissioner Bennie

Beckham, "but these figures are not sufficient proof to determine a definite amount. I want to arrive at a fair and just figure, and not just write him a check because we feel sorry for him."

The Commission decided to ask the state auditor to meet with McKinney and advise him on what figures must be reported and exactly what will be needed.

Mr. Jack Monk, the District Forester, met with the Commission about funding for the Forestry Commission, and stated "County funding from the state comes as matching money, and what they match is local funding. Coffee County cut its allocation to the Forestry Department to only $6,120, and when matched by the state, this will provide enough money for a one-man operation. It will take a total of $55,000 to pay for a 3-man crew, and that does include the state's share. One man can't fight fires and cover the whole county, but that could be all you'll have."

"I don't think everyone realizes how very important the Forestry Department is," said Commissioner Beckham. "You don't, that is, until you need it. I would sure hate to have to do without it."

The Commission was reminded that forestry is the Number Two industry in Coffee County, and it was asked to reconsider its priorities. The Commission discussed looking at the budget and promised to try to find a means of funding the department.

In other action at Monday's meeting, the Commission:

- ***received a letter from the U.S. Department of Agriculture stating field examinations would begin on land involved in the Pond Creek Watershed project to determine problems, needs and solutions;
- ***concurred with A-95 Reviews for Human Resource and Development Commission - $293,750; and Alabama Department of Public Health (Emergency Medical Services) - $1,523,464;
- ***was told Couch Construction has applied to the Alabama Air Pollution Control Commission to construct an asphalt plant near Enterprise;
- ***decided to get 3 proposals for repairing the roof at the office complex and to let the bill to the roofing company who originally installed the roof;
- ***agreed to make two payments to Mr. Charles Baker to finish buying land now in use as landfill (amount left to pay is $43,867);
- ***were reminded they have until April

- 30 to report their financial disclosures to the Alabama Ethics Commission (failure to comply is $10,000 or 10 years in prison);
- ***authorized Landfill Manager Buck Tindol to attend an environmental conference in Montgomery;
- ***agreed to let the Elba Rescue Squad hold an Arts and Crafts show on the courthouse grounds;
- ***received an offer from the State Civil Defense Association to help Coffee County help bring its program up to standards so it will be eligible to receive funding;
- ***allocated $2,000 for clerical assistance needed in the Wilkerson Creek Watershed and Pond Creek Watershed projects;
- ***was told the County Highway Department would auction used equipment on April 12 at 10:00 a.m. at the County Shop;
- ***approved a bi-weekly raise of $27 for Assistant Engineer Tim Hornsby;
- ***was told the employee who received a 2-week leave of absence still had not reported to work, and stated if he wasn't back by March 31, he would be terminated;
- ***was asked by Engle, sr. Leslie Mullins if he could hire additional summer help (approved);
- ***was told the Highway Department has been requested to clean up debris at a burned house;
- ***signed a resolution to apply plant mix on upper Fishpond road; and
- ***AUTHORIZED THE MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION TO ATTEND THE STATE CONVENTION OF COMMISSIONERS IN MONTGOMERY AND THE NATIONAL CONVENTION IN LAS VEGAS.

He was born at Victoria in North Coffee County on March 18, 1888. He moved to Elba with his parents in 1908 and resided in a home his father built on the present site of the Elba Exchange Bank. Educated in Coffee County schools, Newton Academy and a Birmingham business college, Brunson taught school in Coffee County and worked in banks in Elba and Kinston before the Depression. He later established the Elba Insurance Agency and became an independent banker when he opened the Elba Merchants Exchange. In 1938 he established the Elba Exchange Bank and served as its president until retirement. He continued as chairman of the bank's board of directors.

Brunson was active in community, city and church life. He taught Sunday School, served as superintendent of Sunday School and was an active member of the Board of Deacons of the Elba First Baptist Church for 50 years.

A John F. Brunson Memorial Scholarship Fund has been established as a living tribute to Mr. Brunson, and to honor his lifelong keen interest in education. Anyone interested in this fund may contact the Elba Exchange Bank.

Kinston Students Talk With Bill Dickinson

Kinston High School students had the opportunity to directly question Alabama Congressman Bill Dickinson on Monday of this week when a telephone hook-up was made from Washington to the school office and then through loud speaker into the auditorium where a group of senior students were assembled to hear the questions and answers.

Students asked a number of ques-

BRAINSTORMS

WITH FERRIN COX

Ye ole editor had to stop talking long enough to get a doctor's appointment one day last week, but was lucky. Elba was suffering with two of its four active doctors sick, and the other two trying to keep up; but we slid right in at the wire in the afternoon. This put us to thinking, and after a little checking, we find that, under normal conditions, all of our local doctors are overloaded. While there is still a crying need for a local surgeon, there is also a crying need for one or more doctors practicing family medicine. One of the doctors said we could use two more of these immediately. It is a whole lot easier to solve such problems if a lot of local citizens show a genuine concern for community improvement. Local folks need to get behind efforts to secure more doctors and welcome the new folks when they do look or move to Elba.

We had a telephone call last week complaining about the potholes in the city streets. . . in fact some almost washed away. We agree it is a problem, but tried to make light of it to this female caller. We reminded her of the game we played as a child of "not stepping on the cracks" as we walked down the sidewalk. We suggested she join the growing multitude in Elba that drive down the street and see how many blocks they can go without hitting a pothole with either wheel. Some children try it with bicycles, but we think that's a little more than you are going to try this game as part of a competition, there are several streets you will learn to avoid completely, as the whole street is a pothole!

Wednesday morning it was raining early in the day. While taking our children to school, we noticed all the teenagers at the high school huddled inside of cars out of the rain. One car stood out from all the rest, as one of the occupants had placed his or her books on top of the car before getting inside, and the rain was really working on those books. Some parent has several books to pay for by now.

Sunday morning the Elba Methodist Church had some dramatic props to go with some preacher's sermon about "fire and burning in hell." Services had just gotten underway when smoke started puffing up through the heater vents. After some fast running around, hand-twisting, etc., the heater was turned off and the preacher managed to get MOST of us into the educational building so he could complete the sermon. It was a bit amusing that people grabbed all sorts of things needed to conduct the service, but much to the distress of Minister Ed Henne, not a single person bothered to move the collection plates. Ed had to wait until after his sermon and hope folks would still drop their money in the cup as they left the building. We didn't embarrass him with asking the success of that particular collection. Now, maybe he will think twice before asking us some embarrassing question!

The Federal courts have again said it is too late for court challenges of the huge Tennessee-Tombigbee waterway project, but the victory for those of us favoring the project may be a hollow one. The budget-cutting mood in the U.S. Congress may cut some of the funds allocated for such projects. . . in fact we expect to see these items cut before they get to the huge welfare budgets. This seems practical when you think that those doing the cutting are keeping one eye on the number of voters that get mad when the purse strings are drawn tight.

Representative Jimmy Holley has introduced a resolution in the Alabama House of Representatives calling for the pardons and Pardon Board to "grant immediate parole or pardon" to former State Treasurer, Mrs. Melba Till Allen. After a number of folks asked us what was behind his actions, we asked Jimmy. Well, he repeated just what he had said on the floor of the house, and that was that he felt the bankers were as guilty as she, and if they were not going to jail, then neither should she. We have had a number of Coffee County people express the same opinions in the past, but really doubt that the majority would vote to turn her loose. . . at least basing it on our incoming phone calls and visits. We expect the resolution to die in the House committee, but Representative Holley thinks otherwise.

[Note: The above last paragraph was written for the paper last week and got cut due to space limitations. On Tuesday of this week the resolution was indeed "postponed indefinitely" which means it is probably dead.]

Lewey Stephens Honored Upon Guard Retirement

One of the nation's highest decorations was awarded Col. Lewey Stephens, Jr., of Elba in an Alabama National Guard change-of-command ceremony at Montgomery last weekend.

Emotion welled up in the eyes of the former district attorney, as Maj. Gen. James A. Mickle, Commanding General, 167th Support Command (COSCOM), Alabama National Guard, presented Stephens the Legion of Merit.

The award for exceptionally meritorious service in a position of great responsibility during the period November 1973 to February 1980 cited Stephens for innovative and aggressive leadership, resulting in a high degree of readiness for troops under his command.

"During my time, I've met more fine people in the Alabama National Guard than any one place I know," Stephens said.

"It is they who made this award possible, and you can bet I'm going to miss every one of them."

Passing the 31st Support Group (Area) colors to his successor, Lt. Col. Joseph C. Page, drew the curtain on 30 years of devoted citizenship.

Taking a leave degree from the University of Alabama under the G. I. Bill in 1950, Stephens joined the Alabama National Guard in 1950 with a direct commission as second lieutenant of field artillery.

When the 31st Division was again called to active duty for the Korean Conflict in early 1951, Stephens added 21 months to his three years of previous active military service, this time training troops.

After release from active duty, he reorganized Battery A of the 93rd Field Artillery Battalion at Elba which got its federal recognition February 27, 1953, and remained in command until 1961.

When promoted to major in 1964, Stephens claims to have been the "ranking" captain in the entire army. Other assignments placed him on the 31st Division and Emergency Operations Headquarters staff, and in command of the 933rd Composite Battalion which was later reorganized as a 31st Armored Brigade service support battalion.

He later served as Chief of Staff for the Alabama National Guard's Troop Command.

One of the "old school" who believes that every citizen ought to be willing to pay their dues, Stephens division's Southwest Pacific campaigns.

Taking a leave degree from the University of Alabama under the G. I. Bill in 1950, Stephens joined the Alabama National Guard in 1950 with a direct commission as second lieutenant of field artillery.

"Heck, this is only my second retirement," and I'm not through yet," Stephens laughed, indicating he has no intention of simply fading away.

"Some people think of me as a retired lawyer, but I seem to be trying cases just about every day."

The district attorney for Coffee and Pike counties for 18 1/2 years, Stephens is now officially on "super-nominary" status, on call anywhere his services might be needed.

But the "reserve" public prosecutor's services are enough in demand that Stephens doesn't take "retirement" literally, and won't until removed from the reserve rolls.

A military career leading to the second "retirement" began when Stephens enlisted in the U. S. Army right after graduation from New Brockton High School in 1943.

He wound up in the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers in the South Pacific alongside many other Alabamians who were called to active duty with the 31st Division during the war or later assigned to it.

Stephens helped support three of the division's Southwest Pacific campaigns.

Taking a leave degree from the University of Alabama under the G. I. Bill in 1950, Stephens joined the Alabama National Guard in 1950 with a direct commission as second lieutenant of field artillery.

Stephens would like to see universal military training required of every citizen, man or woman, thinking the Israelis have the right idea.

"We are recognizable no longer as strong militarily as we once were, and on top of that we're facing a terrifically high rate of inflation that threatens to blow us under economically," he said.

"For the first time in my life, I fear for our country's safety, and I think we're going to take a long, hard look at the attitudes and beliefs which may well have helped get us in this shape, if we hope to turn it around."

The old soldier showed up at the change-of-command ceremony wearing a ramplaid hat, gold braid of a field grade officer on his bill discolored from 16 years of heavy duty service.

A well-known practical joker, Stephens couldn't resist one more chance to put one over on Mickle who had once given him a good-natured scolding about the old hat threatening to trample the moth-eaten thing about if he ever saw it again.

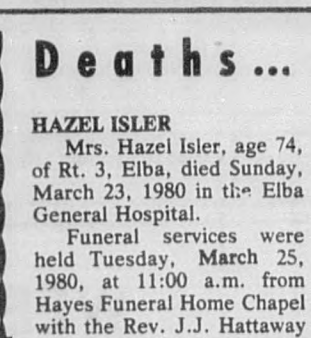

During the change-of-command ceremony in which he praised Stephens as one of the Alabama National Guard's ablest commanders, Mickle merely acknowledged the gag with a quick glance and knowing grin in a final gesture of respect and camaraderie.

Col. Lewey Stephens, Jr., (R) of Elba, is awarded the Legion of Merit by Maj. Gen. James A. Mickle.

Col. Lewey Stephens, Jr., (R) Elba, passes colors of 31st Support Group (Area) to Maj. Gen. James A. Mickle.

Mickle in turn passed colors to Stephens' successor as Group Commander, Lt. Col. (P) Joseph C. Page.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Cox (Ferrin):
Some very compassionate and sympathetic friends, members of a prayer group have been paying for my subscription to the Elba Clipper four or five years since I have been in the Enterprise Nursing Home. You can't live and teach in a community 26 years and not let the people of that community become a part of you sharing of their sweetness and happiness and grieving with them in their sorrows.

Mr. Charles Dewey Rowe, a native and member of a prominent pioneer family of Coffee County, age 81, passed away at DeLand, Florida, in a nursing home, on March 20, 1980.

Mr. Rowe lived at Marianna, Florida, for a number of years until recently when he moved to DeLand.

He was the son of the late C.L. and Ruby Brunson Rowe, and is survived by his wife, Ruth Jones Rowe; a daughter - Mrs. J.P. (Regene) Streetman; a granddaughter, Mrs. James (Pat) Philpott, all of DeLand; a son, and a grandson, Jim Streetman, an attorney of Jackson, Mississippi; two sisters - Mrs. J.E. Warren, Sr., and Mrs. Mary Dawson; a brother - B.B. Rowe, all of Enterprise; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were conducted by the Rev. Richard L. Hayes of Enterprise, at the New Brockton cemetery, with Carpenter Funeral Home of DeLand, Florida, in charge.

I am always delighted to see any visitors from Elba.

Sincerely,
Xuripha Dunaway

When did you last check your jewelry insurance coverage? If you haven't had your jewelry appraised in three years, it's time to do so. Diamonds and colored stones prices have risen steadily in the world market and, most likely, your diamond jewelry is worth more than you probably realize. If you would like a current appraisal, we'll be happy to help you.

Pinning Ceremony Held For Nurses

A pinning ceremony was held February 28, 1980, for the graduates of the licensed practical nursing department of Douglas MacArthur State Technical College in Opp.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Evelyn Bess, and a welcoming speech was given by Mike Morgan, president of the senior class of nursing candidates.

E.C. Nevin, president of the college, addressed the group. Mrs. Cynthia Taylor, instructor for the 3rd quarter practical nursing students, provided a solo in song, "Eternal Life," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Rebecca Hannah. Mrs. Joan Simmons, instructor for the first quarter nursing program, called each graduate forward for pinning. Mrs. Gloria Turner, instructor in the second quarter, capped each graduate as they were called, and Mrs. Cynthia Taylor pinned each graduate. Mrs. Bill Pugh and Mrs. Pat Woodham, representatives of the Gideon Auxiliary, presented each graduate with a white nurse's Bible. The graduates then recited the Nightingale Pledge led by Mrs. Joan Simmons. Mrs. Mary Lynn Senn provided piano music for the processional and recessional marches.

Richard is working on some special subjects relating to his Master's; he and Wilma are Dorn Parents at Huntington. That title with itself shows the popularity of this devoted couple, with the student body at Huntington.

John and Elizabeth Miles, children of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Miles of Huntsville, spent the AEA holidays in Elba. With grandparents like, Roscoe, Eva, Clara and Paxton, these two are fortunate. Their every wish was granted with delight and to satisfaction. For them this vacation was super!

In Mt. Gilead Community many ideal and prosperous families. However, I'm thinking of one special family, the Horace Sessions.

With hereditary love for the soil, the Sessions' are one of Coffee County's most distinguished and eminent farm families.

They live in a modern country home with all available conveniences.

If it's modern, progressive and innovative, that's for Horace Sessions. He has gone all out to make the farming operation grow into a productive and secure vocation.

The Sessions family unit includes Horace, Betty, Chris and Davy. The oldest son, Freddy, is married and lives in Perry State Community, to the best of my knowledge.

All three of the boys are graduates of Kinston High School, and Davy graduated from Enterprise State Junior College. He made an outstanding record in Computer Service at the college.

For quite a while, he held a very responsible position with Benon Wholesale in Geneva, Alabama; however, he was not too happy being confined to an office, and longed for the farm. Today he is in partnership with his dad, and is a full-fledged progressive farmer. He is an expert when it comes to operating the modern equipment on the Sessions farm.

This new type of modern farming brings both promise and problems. The promises depend on yields, productivity and profits. The problems are the threats of insufficient yields, higher production cost, lower prices and lack of profit. So Davy and Horace have the courage, vim, the mental and physical vigor to be productive and profitable farmers.

Since Chris commutes to ESJC, he, too, is a good helper. He is a member of the college basketball team, having been fortunate enough to win a scholarship. Many are the blue ribbons and trophies won by the Sessions boys for their prize calves in the 4-H club. They were County, District and State winners.

Horace and Betty participate in all County Extension Programs, in the Cattlemen's Association and the Farm Bureau. They recently attended the State Convention in Birmingham.

Around The Town

By Mrs. Nellie B. Martin

Browsing around in Penny's in Enterprise, whom should I see but the versatile and friendly Lucy Baker. The Baker family resided in New Brockton when Captain Baker was Dorsey's pilot.

When I use the words "versatile and friendly," their full meanings are exemplified. Lucy was an ardent member of the Azalea Garden Club, and as its president, she was most capable, energetic, artistic and informative. She conformed to rules and order, and under her guidance and leadership the club was most active.

She was most instrumental in helping the New Brockton ladies to organize a club. Our visit was too short to get the facts as to why they are back in our area; however, she promised a call, and a follow-up visit.

During the AEA holidays, the children met Paul and Catherine at the stockyards in Montgomery, where they were participating in the Spring Charolais Bull Sale.

***If you want your youth revived, just ask Tara, Pete and Jimbo about the Southeastern Champion Children's Rodeo at Garrett Coliseum in Montgomery. The exhibition and skills of the boys were super. However, nothing takes from the antics of the clowns - to these three it was amusing performances and a super rodeo!

***Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holliman, the popular music coordinators of the First Baptist Church, enjoyed a short vacation. They drove to Tuscaloosa Thursday to visit with his sister, Mrs. Floyd Lovett at Clara Verner Towers. Then, on to Reform for a visit with another sister, Mrs. Timan Findley. Friday found them in Aliceville, at the home of a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holliman. Selma was the next stop, and a short visit with Mr. Major Holliman was most enjoyable. The Hollimans' mission was accomplished and Sunday morning found them back in harness, ready for service.

So Davy and Horace have the courage, vim, the mental and physical vigor to be productive and profitable farmers.

Since Chris commutes to ESJC, he, too, is a good helper. He is a member of the college basketball team, having been fortunate enough to win a scholarship. Many are the blue ribbons and trophies won by the Sessions boys for their prize calves in the 4-H club. They were County, District and State winners.

Horace and Betty participate in all County Extension Programs, in the Cattlemen's Association and the Farm Bureau. They recently attended the State Convention in Birmingham.

They also have time for community, church, civic and social affairs. They prove no busy man was ever miserable. Horace demonstrates that his farming business is not to remake himself or his family, but to make the absolute best of what God made.

Walton, FL.

Mrs. Goodson

This week, March 27, 1980, the Sr. Spotlight is gonna shine on yet ANOTHER of the sweet and lovely lady residents of the Elba Nursing Home - Mrs. Lurline Lowery Goodson.

"Miss" Lurline is a newcomer to the nursing home, having been admitted only about two weeks ago; but when asked if she was liking it, replied, "I like it just fine - I've got no complaints whatsoever! Everybody's been mighty sweet to me." (And, we have a suspicion that the REASON "everybody" is being mighty sweet to Miss Lurline is BECAUSE Miss Lurline HERSELF has been "mighty sweet" to everybody else - you know, it seems as if we are treated the way WE treat, and act toward, others; as a rule - if WE are nice and kind to our fellowman, then USUALLY, HE is nice and kind to us and vice versa. Anyway, our opinion of Miss Lurline is that she is one sweet and kind lady.

Miss Lurline is a grey-haired lady with a smooth and pretty complexion, who wears glasses.

She was born March 4, 1916, in the community of Wilkinston, one of 12 children born to Asa and Katie Paul Lowery. Mrs. Lowery was born and reared around the edge of Coffee and Pike Counties - Spring Hill - close to a church called White Rock." Mrs. Lowery was "born and reared in Wilkinston."

The parents of Asa Lowery were Asa Lowery and Samantha Gibson Lowery and Samantha was "from around Spring Hill" and Asa "came from Texas and settled in Pike and Coffee Counties."

Ray, who is married to the former Faye Crocker of Elba, Ray is employed with Northrop as an aircraft mechanic, and Faye is employed at Kleinfert's in the Accounting Department. They are the parents of one son, Jeff, who is a 7th grader at the Elba High School. Let us quote Jeff on his memories of his grandmother -

"When I would go stay at 'Mama Ween's', I'd stay at what we called her, she would bake me cakes and cookies and let me lick the bowl. She would give me money to clean up the yard. And she would let me go to Ocala, Fla. to see my grandpa. She was nice and always corrected me when I was wrong and needed it. That's all I remember!"

Brothers and sisters of Miss Lurline's father, Asa, all of whom are now deceased, are the following: "Pud," who was reared around Snellgrove's Mill, but was living at Boutwell's Mill at the time of his death; Bob, who resided in Panama City, FL; Mank, a resident of Ocala, Fla., who resided in Panama City, FL; Dr. Caspar "Cap" Lowery, who lived in Tampa, FL; Mrs. Jim (Emma) Wilkes, whose home was at Spring Hill; Mrs. Jim (Ethel) Stevens, who lived between Victoria and Snellgrove's Mill and later moved to Crestview, FL; Mrs. John (Aileen) Stevens, whose home was located between Victoria and Snellgrove's Mill; and Mrs. Jim (Mimi) Tindol, who also made her home between Victoria and Snellgrove's Mill.

Siblings of Miss Lurline's mother, Katie, all of whom are now deceased, are the following: Mrs. "Plick" (Lizzie) Wilkinston, whose home was located at Wilkinston; Freeman Paul, Wilkinston; Mrs. Perry (Lela) Flowers, a resident of the community of Wilkinston; Wallace Paul, who lived at Wilkinston; Faye Paul, whose home was located at Wilkinston; and Brice Paul, also a resident of Wilkinston, and the father of Elba's own esteemed Judge Eris Paul, and the namesake of Coffee County's sheriff today, Sheriff Brice Paul.

As stated previously, Miss Lurline came from a family of 12 children, includ-of Elba. Larry owns Goodson's Garage, and Charlotte is employed with Southland Brothers in the Sales Department. They are the parents of Stacey, who is in the 6th grade at the Elba Middle School, and Jim, who is a 1st grader at Elba Elementary School.

As we can see from reading the above, both Mr. Goodson's sons inherited his love, knack and ability for "mechanic-ing."

In Miss Lurline's younger days, she worked in a cotton mill in Columbus, Georgia, for a year; she worked in the peanut mill in Newton for a while when a Mr. Dan Nelson owned it; and she worked in the high school lunchroom 8 years.

Miss Lurline belongs to Westside Baptist Church, and her son, Ray, who is married to the former Maude Rae Grimes - they reside in Wilkinston; Roy, who is married to the former Velma Lassiter - they live in Enterprise; Brantley, who is married to the former Eunice Lambert - they are Elba residents; a sister, Debra, who died when she was 20 years old; Mary Alice (Mrs. Charles) Bowers, who was a resident of Dayton, Ohio - she and her husband are now deceased; and Malloy, whose wife is the former Evelyn Grooms and they reside in Ft. Walton, FL.

Miss Lurline was married to Jimmie Goodson, who was better known as "Jim." He was from around Brantley, (which was formerly located where Skinner's Furniture is now) and later went into the garage business with Hollis Matthews at the old Ford place and where his bus is in the garage business today.

Some favorite foods are "fruit - watermelon; meat - fish; vegetables - corn, okra - just as I like my vegetables - I can't eat many meals without vegetables. I could eat good string beans and squash twice a day, and I like jello."

About her children, Miss Lurline said, "I had three good children - I think I raised them right - I didn't let them wait til they were grown to see what work was like!"

We cannot say goodbye to Miss Lurline without recording the good things she had to say about her daughters-in-law and her son-in-law (cause all of us in this like to hear compliments directed toward us from our mate's parents, right?) She said, "I think I've been wonderfully blessed - I've got 2 sweet daughters-in-law and I sweet son-in-law. I couldn't love them any more than I do. I don't make any difference between them and they're ALL my children! And, I'll tell you the truth - I don't know how I would have gotten through this past year with my illness if it hadn't been for Charlotte and Faye." So, take a bow, girls! You're pretty special to Miss Lurline!

Miss Lurline is equally proud of her grandchildren who lovingly call her, as Jeff wrote, "Mama Ween." This was started by her niece, Mary Jo (Daniels) and her nephew, who is a 7th grader at the Elba High School. Let us quote Jeff on his memories of his grandmother -

"When I would go stay at 'Mama Ween's', I'd stay at what we called her, she would bake me cakes and cookies and let me lick the bowl. She would give me money to clean up the yard. And she would let me go to Ocala, Fla. to see my grandpa. She was nice and always corrected me when I was wrong and needed it. That's all I remember!"

Hope you readers enjoyed meeting, via this article, this nice, sweet lady, and hope you will drop by to visit her, and the other wonderful folks at the Elba Nursing Home today!!

VIEWS FROM

THE PRESSBOX

By: Ricky Malars

Sports Editor

I watched the N.C.A.A. semifinals on Saturday and the finals Monday night, and team I was pulling for won in every game. Louisville played the brand of basketball I like, especially their pressure defense all game long. They had the best team in the "final 4" and their win puts new life into college basketball.

With so much talent returning next year, the season should be the best ever!

We've got a lot more fishing and hunting pictures this week, but a fact that is absent is that of Recreation Director Dennis Smith. Dennis is supposed to be quite a turkey hunter, and although I've heard he's already bagged two, I guess they were too small to have their pictures made. Maybe he'll get another and bring it by The Clipper so we can see just how good a hunter he is.

Harold Kelley, a native of the Damascus Community, and quite a softball player, has again changed teams, and is now playing with Jerry's Catering, in Miami, Florida. Harold, who made the All-American team last season, played in Oklahoma two years ago, and in North Carolina last year, and it looks like he is really getting around!

By the way, Kelley is 6-4, 245, and batted .648 with 188 home runs last season.

I guess it's almost baseball season at Elba High, and I wonder what kind of team we'll have? Coach Hudson's troops got off to a fast start last season and won a bunch of games, and they should have a pretty fair team this year. I'll pass along more information as I find out when they're going to get started.

We don't have an "All County" basketball team as such in Coffee County because of the wide difference in the size of schools, but it's fun to sit down and put together your own all-star squad. Elba is a 3A school, but only posted a 2-2 slate against county schools, and so, I'll include them in my A-2A-3A "All County" team for 1979-80.

Here goes: Glen Johnson - Elba - Guard; Ricky Nelson - New Brockton - Guard; Robert Wilson - New Brockton - Forward; Joe Edwards - Kingston - Forward; and Jeff Rhodes - Kingston - Center.

Honorable Mention would go to - (Kingston) - Curtis Lane and Scott Sansom; (New Brockton) - Frederick Thomas; (Elba) - Don Horstead and Alan King; and (Zion Chapel) - Ricky Dorman, Jeff Senn and Walter Adair.

Coach of the Year - Charles Cole of New Brockton.

Got to go . . . . .

Black Dumps Gold 20-6 In Spring Game

The Elba High Tigers held their annual "Black and Gold" intrasquad game on Friday afternoon with the Black team posting a 20-6 win.

The Black team, under the direction of Coach Willie Tyson, started the game off with a bang when, on its very first play, Don Horstead broke loose on a 36-yard scamper. Younger brother, Ted Horstead, rambled for 13 yards on the next play, and then Don broke loose again for a 10-yard gain. Don Horstead reached paydirt with a 1-yard plunge one play later, and the Black owned a quick 6-0 lead. A pass for the two-point conversion failed, leaving the score at 6-0 with 10:29 left in the opening stanza.

After the Gold team was stopped cold, the Black squad began another march that would fall short. Ted Horstead and brother, Don, accounted for 47 yards on the drive, but the march stalled on a key 4th-down play and the Gold took over. The Black team again marched deep into Gold territory late in the half, only to be stopped by a pass interception by Etheridge Gunnells.

The Black got the ball back with only 1:03 left in the half, and with the ball resting 61 yards from paydirt. Time to pass? Not when you've got Don Horstead! Horstead got the call on 4 straight plays and responded with runs of 34, 20, 4 and 6 yards to score another touchdown. The pass for two points again failed, but with :06 left in the half, the Black team had moved on top 12-0.

The Gold team opened the second half with Troy Brown and Eddie Coleman at running back and promptly marched to a 1st and goal at the 9-yard line. However, due to the weather and two fine defensive plays by David Stutley stopped the march back on the 15-yard line.

The Black team now began to use back-up running back, Wayne Parker, and Parker responded with some excellent runs. Parker gained 35 yards on the drive, which was climaxed by a 21-yard touchdown pass from Mike Amison to Chris English. Amison and English also hooked up on a pass for the two-point conversion to up the Black's lead to 20-0 with 9:31 left in the game.

New Fishing Laws In Effect

Conservation Enforcement Officers T. W. Tompkins and Jim Tucker of Coffee County reminded county anglers to be aware of the new fishing license requirements that were passed into law last year.

The three major changes, the officers said, were the raising of the fee on the Annual State Fishing License from $3.00 to $6.00; the requirement for a $1.00 Hook and Line (cane pole) License in the county of residence; and the requirement for an Annual State Fishing License for those fishing with hook and line (cane pole) outside their county of residence.

Some further clarification is needed in the last two legal requirements. Officers Tompkins and Tucker noted. Specifically what the law means, they said, is that can pole fishermen who live in Coffee County can have $1.00 license if they are fishing in Coffee County, but if they want to fish in an adjoining county with a cane pole, they must purchase an Annual State Fishing License at the cost of $6.00.

The Gold team finally got rolling late in the game behind the running of Troy Brown, and moved in for a score. Brown gained over 25 yards in the 43-yard drive, and notched the tally on an 8-yard scamper. A run for the two-point conversion failed, making the final score - Black 20 - Gold 6.

"The game went pretty good, and we had some good individual effort," stated Elba's Coach Mack Wood after Friday's Black-and-Gold game. "but we do have a lot of things to work on during the week. No players will be added once the teams have been chosen. To be eligible to play, a boy must be 10 before August 1, and must not turn 16 prior to August 1. ## Westside To Host Easter Sunrise Service

PASTOR'S CORNER

Westside Baptist Church will hold the annual Easter Sunrise Service at 5:30 a.m. on April 6, 1980. This Resurrection celebration will include a message by Dr. Brady Justice, and special music, including the congregation, choir and a brass quartet.

Dr. Justice is the interim pastor at Westside. The service will be under the direction of David Scott.

Marie Harwell Circle Meets With Mrs. Reeves

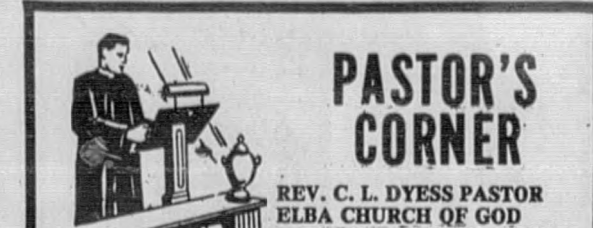

The Marie Harwell Circle of the Whitewater Baptist Church held its two March meetings in homes of two of its members. On March 3 the circle met in the home of Mrs. Max Reeves. It was good to be back in the fellowship of this family following Mr. Max's extended illness. The devotion for the evening was entitled "No Strings Attached" with scripture from Romans. The devotion was in keeping with the Annie Armstrong emphasis for home missions which culminates Easter Sunday.

During the business session it was announced that Marie Wise would teach the home mission book on a Wednesday night sometime during the month of the home mission emphasis.

The program conducted by Marie Wise was "The South & Missions Field Again/Still." Gleanings from the program were that the South has the reputation of being the most religious part of our country and it has been the stronghold of Southern Baptist work.

On the evening of March 17 the circle met in the home of Mrs. Gladys Reeves. The hostess selected Psalm 23 as her devotion. Following a brief business session, Marie Wise conducted the program "The Messenger Cares." Prior to the study of Jeremiah each member was asked to identify evils in society, an individual, or group, and threats to Christian faith. A member shared with the group what she considered a major threat to our Christian faith. Following the study of Jeremiah and his grief over the evil practices of his people, the group used Jeremiah's example in exploring specific ways to witness and serve today. The members concluded the program with a chain prayer for the people on their note cards.

Following the program a delicious salad plate was served to Marie Wise, Jeanette Windham, Mary Anne Richburg, Totie Parrish, Wayne White, Sylvia Padgett, Janice Bell, and Helen Smith.

While the decisions of the courts, ruling out prayer in the schools, still ring out across this nation, there comes that resounding Word of God. "Pray without ceasing." (1 Th. 5:17). "Men ought always to pray and not to faint." (Luke 18:1). Perhaps their decision has caused many to cease praying altogether.

How many have sat down and pondered in their hearts since that decision, and came up with these questions: Why pray at all? Or, Does it pay to pray? Was not a similar ruling made by the courts during the time of Daniel? The ruling that affected Daniel was far greater than the ruling handed down by our courts. Even though Daniel knew the penalty for praying, he ceased not making his petition three times a day. (Daniel 6:13). When the penalty for praying was carried out against Daniel, it is little wonder that he answered the king, "O king, live forever. My God hath sent his angels and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me." (Daniel 6:21-22).

The power of prayer must be recognized by all believers. It is not hard to answer the question, Does it pay to pray? Jesus, even though he was the Son of God, prayed often. Observe the following scriptures:

[Mark 1:35] "And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed."

[Mark 6:46] "And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray."

[Luke 22:41] "And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down and prayed."

Christ knew the importance of prayer; therefore, He gives instructions concerning prayer. Observe the parable of the unjust judge:

"And he spoke a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray and not to faint, saying, There was a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of my adversary. And he would not for a while, but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him?—I tell you that he will avenge them speedily." (Luke 18:1-8)

Yes, there are those in high places that fear not God, nor regard man. Christians should not fear man's ruling, when in opposition to God's Word, but should speak as the apostles did when they were forbidden to teach in His name.

We ought to obey God rather than man." (Acts 5:29)

Herod, having put James to death, saw that it pleased the people, and proceeded further by imprisoning Peter. Though we see Peter well guarded to prevent his escape, we hear the new-founded church praying in his behalf. Notice the scripture: "Peter therefore was kept in prison, but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him." (Acts 12:5). God heard the prayer of the church and sent an angel to release Peter from what seemed to be impossible. Man had no doubt labeled it impossible, but nothing is impossible with God.

Christian, it is time that we pray one for another, for our nation, for the church, and most of all for those who have not accepted Jesus as their Saviour.

Following his formal retirement in 1965, he has served 17 churches as interim pastor. Active in the Baptist denomination, he has served as moderator of associations, president of the Alabama Baptist State Convention, and chairman of the Convention's Executive Board and Administration Committee. In service to the Southern Baptist Convention, he was a member of the Home Missions and Annuity Boards and a trustee of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, located in Louisville, Kentucky.

Mrs. Justice (Kate) has been associated with her husband in every area of the churches he has served as permanent and interim pastor. In recent weeks, she taught the January Bible Study in three Coffee County Baptist churches. She joins her husband in ministry to the Westside church.

Did you know the Sunday School is 200 years old? Or that it was started in Gloucester, England? Ever hear of Robert Raikes? Ever hear of these questions and many other interesting facts will be presented beginning at 10:00 a.m. this Sunday at First Assembly of God, located on Highland Drive.

This special service will consist of two plays, and the Children's Choir and Adult Choir will be singing. Commemorative buttons will be given to each person present. Everyone is invited.

Westside Baptist Calls Dr. Justice

Dr. B.R. Justice, of Enterprise, has accepted a call from the Westside Baptist Church of Elba, to serve as interim pastor. He will serve while the church seeks a permanent pastor.

During a 25-year tenure as pastor of the Enterprise First Baptist Church, Dr. Justice led the church to erect the present building complex and organize three new churches; namely, Park Avenue, Hillcrest and Lee Street.

The rally is sponsored by, and held at, the First Baptist Church. It is a "Come-As-You-Are" affair to enjoy the ministry of two young men who have totally committed their lives to loving service in the world.

A popular song sums it up nicely: "Come on people now, Smile on your brother, Everybody get together Try to love one another right now!"

Westside To Host Easter Sunrise Service

PASTOR'S CORNER

With Mrs. Reeves

The Marie Harwell Circle of the Whitewater Baptist Church held its two March meetings in homes of two of its members. On March 3 the circle met in the home of Mrs. Max Reeves. It was good to be back in the fellowship of this family following Mr. Max's extended illness. The devotion for the evening was entitled "No Strings Attached" with scripture from Romans. The devotion was in keeping with the theme of the year, "No Strings Attached," with emphasis for home missions which culminates Easter Sunday.

During the business session it was announced that Merle Wise would teach the home mission book on a Wednesday night sometime during the month of the home mission emphasis.

The program conducted by Merle Wise was "The South is a Mission Field Again/Still." Gleanings from the program were that the South has the reputation of being the most religious part of our country and it has been the stronghold of Southern Baptist work.

On the evening of March 17 the circle met in the home of Mrs. Gladys Reeves. The hosts selected Psalm 23 as their devotion. Following a brief business session, Merle Wise conducted the program "The Messenger Comes." Prior to the study of Jeremiah each member was given a note card bearing the name of a missionary and the name of a circle member. On this card each member was asked to identify with the people, an individual, or group, and threats to Christian faith.

Each member shared with the group what she considered a major threat to the Christian world. Following the study of Jeremiah and his grief over the evil practices of his people, the group used Jeremiah's example in exploring specific ways to witness and serve today. The members concluded the program with a chain prayer for the people on their note cards.

Following the program a delicious salad plate was served to Merle Wise, Jeanette Windham, Mary Anne Richburg, Totie Parrish, Wayne White, Sylvia Padgett, Janice Bell, and Helen Smith.

Westside Baptist Church will hold the annual Easter Sunrise Service at 5:30 a.m. on April 6, 1980. This Resurrection celebration will include a message by Dr. Brady Justice, and special music, including the congregation, choir and a brass quartet.

Dr. Justice is the interim pastor at Westside. The service will not be held at the church building. The total community is invited to participate in this worship, celebration and fellowship of Easter.

While the decisions of the courts, ruling out prayer in the schools, still ring out across this nation, there comes that resounding Word of God - "Pray without ceasing." (1 Th. 5:17). "Men ought always to pray and not to faint." (Luke 18:1). Perhaps their decision has caused many to cease praying altogether.

How many have sat down and pondered in their hearts since that decision, and came up with these questions: Why pray at all? Does it pay to pray? Was not a similar ruling made by the courts during the time of Daniel? The ruling that affected Daniel was far greater than the ruling handed down by our courts. Even though Daniel knew the penalty for praying, he ceased not making his petition three times a day. (Daniel 6:10)

When the penalty for praying was carried out against Daniel, it is little said, "O king, live forever. My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me." (Daniel 6:22)

The power of prayer must be recognized by all believers. It is not hard to answer the question, Does it pay to pray? Jesus, even though he was the Son of God, prayed often. Observe the following scriptures:

[Mark 1:35] "And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out and departed unto a solitary place, and there prayed."

[Mark 6:46] "And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray."

[Luke 22:41] "And he

guarded to prevent his escape, we hear the new-founded church praying in his behalf. Notice the scripture - "Peter therefore was kept in prison, but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him." (Acts 12:5). God heard the prayer of the church and sent an angel to release Peter from what seemed to be impossible. Man had no doubt labeled it impossible, but nothing is impossible with God.

Christian, it is time that we pray one for another, for our nation, for the church, and most of all for those who have not accepted Jesus as their Saviour.

Christ knew the importance of prayer; therefore, He gives instructions concerning prayer. Observe the parable of the unjust judge:

"And he spoke a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray and not to faint, saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God neither was regarded man; and there was a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of my adversary. And he would not for a while, but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man, yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him - I tell you that he will avenge them speedily." (Luke 18:1-8)

Yes, there are those in high places that fear not God, nor regard man. Christians should not fear to these questions and many other interesting facts will be presented beginning at 10:00 a.m. this Sunday at First Assembly of God, located on Highland Drive.

Dr. B.R. Justice, of Enterprise, has accepted a call from the Westside Baptist Church of Elba, to serve as interim pastor. He will serve while the church seeks a permanent pastor.

During a 25-year tenure as pastor of the Enterprise First Baptist Church, Dr. Justice led the church to erect the present building complex and organize three new churches; namely, Park Avenue, Hillcrest and Lee Street.

Following his formal retirement in 1965, he has served 17 churches as interim pastor. Active in the Baptist denomination, he has served as moderator of associations, president of the Alabama Baptist State Convention, and chairman of the Convention's Executive Board and Administration Committee. In service to the Southern Baptist Convention, he was a member of the Home Missions and Annuity Boards and a trustee of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, located in Louisville, Kentucky.

Mrs. Justice (Kate) has been associated with her husband in every area of the churches he has served as permanent and interim pastor. In recent weeks, she taught the January Bible Study in three Coffee County Baptist churches. She joins her husband in ministry to the Westside church.

ALL AROUND COFFEE COUNTY

County Farm Agent
TOM CASADY

GOOD NEWS

Coffee County farmers, homemakers and businessmen on the Elba telephone exchange can now call the agricultural offices in New Brockton free. The number is 897-2776. Whether you live near Perry's Store or Wilkinston, or in the heart of Elba, you can call this number. Just simply dial like you are calling someone in Elba.

We are indebted to Drexel Cook of Cook Chevrolet in Elba, Jimmy Holley of the Elba Tank Company, and Lamar Rainer of the People's Bank for providing this service.

HOW TO MAKE IT

Several farmers and others in the county have asked me for information on making alcohol for fuel. They didn't have a course on this when I attended Auburn several years ago - so I am completely in the dark on the production of alcohol, however, several individuals have asked me to get together a team of folks who know some of the answers.

We have set a special meeting on this for Thursday, March 27, (tonight) at 6:30 p.m. in the Community Room at the Extension Office in New Brockton. A lot of questions will be answered.

ESTATE PLANNING

Are you willing to have the government take a big chunk out of your estate when you die? Some of my insurance friends and tax experts tell me that hundreds of Coffee County farmers and landowners need to take a closer look at their estates.

The law is very specific as to the amount due the federal government and other groups who need to be making plans on an almost urgent basis tend to put it off year after year.

In the next six weeks we plan to have an estate tree and other scratches until they get down to the bare skin and become raw. Heavy infestation of lice weakens cows and makes them more susceptible to disease. Don't let your cows waste their gaining power by rubbing and suffering.

There are several materials available for controlling lice. Durban-44 recently received labeling for lice. Be sure to follow directions carefully.

SOYBEAN VARIETIES

We do not recommend the Bedford and Essex varieties of soybeans in Coffee County. Some varieties that we do recommend for planting are: Davis Centennial and Coker 156. Plant these in late April and early May. For late May or early June, plant Ransom or Bragg. For your late plantings in June and later, use Hutton, Cobb or Coker 488.

GRAIN SORGHUM VARIETIES

Resistant varieties of grain sorghum we recommend are: BR-64, G-514BR, GSA-134BR, Savanna-S, Penngrain BR and B-815. Non-bird resistant varieties are G-522, ML-135, MS101, ORO-T and T-E 1101-R. All these are true Elba. If you need further information on a particular variety, get in touch with us or talk with your dealer.

CONSULTING FORESTER

If you need to hire a forestry consultant to let you know how much timber you have or the value of it, call us and we will give you some names of licensed, consulting foresters in this area.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

BY: Bill Hughes, District Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service

NO-TILL PAYS OFF AGAIN

Recent heavy rains have caused substantial damage in the cropland fields. I ask you to compare these fields to a field planted no-till in small grain, or corn residue. For over 20 years Soil Conservation districts and Soil Conservation Service personnel have encouraged the use of no-till planting to stop erosion. In the last few years research and farmer experiences have proven that no-till does have many advantages.

No-till planting provides farmers with fuel efficiency, time savings and protection of their land. In most cases, no-till does have many advantages. It is a valuable asset to the farmer, but you are losing nutrients and potential yields from your crops.

Stop this loss by switching to no-till on your cropland. You can eliminate up to eight trips across your field, saving up to seven gallons of expensive fuel and keep your soil in the field where it belongs. For more information, call or come by the district office.

Food isn't the only source of sodium in our diet. Drinking water, especially from deep wells, often contains significant amounts of sodium. And some non-prescription drugs contain large amounts of sodium.

The major hazard of excessive sodium is for persons with high blood pressure. Not everyone is equally susceptible. In the United States, approximately 17 percent of adults have high blood pressure. Sodium intake is but one of the factors known to affect blood pressure. Obesity, in particular, seems to play a major role.

In populations with low sodium intakes, high blood pressure is rare. In contrast, high blood pressure is common in populations with high sodium intakes. If people with high blood pressure severely restrict their sodium intakes, their blood pressure will usually fall - although not always to normal levels.

At present, there's no good way to predict who will develop high blood pressure. However, certain groups, such as blacks, have a higher incidence. Low-sodium diets might help some of these people avoid high blood pressure if they could be identified before they develop the condition.

SHOE BUYING
When buying shoes shop in the afternoon since your feet generally expand by the day. But don't buy shoes after a tremendous amount of walking because your feet may be swollen.

Have your feet measured each time you shop for shoes. Both of your feet aren't the same size, so be sure to have your larger foot measured.

Wear the type socks or stockings you plan to wear with shoes most of the time. Always try on shoes before selecting them and walk in them to see how they support your feet. Your feet will also expand with your body weight on them.

A final reminder is, don't insist on a certain shoe, but purchase shoes that fit and feel comfortable.

If you decide to cut back on your sodium intake, be careful of the foods that may be harmful for others.

There's a place for some sugar in our diet, but most of us are overdoing it. To cut back, use unsweetened cereals or cereal with fresh fruit instead of sugar.

Substitute fruit for candy or sweet paste. Substitute unsweetened coffee or tea, fruit juice or water for sugar-sweetened beverages. Try serving a fruit and cheese plate for a family dessert.

You can cut back on sugar.
